OUR RELIGIOUS COLUMN.

WELCOME, ADORED NAME! In the centre of their inmost souls they wore Where rack and torment strived in vain to reach Thee.

Little, alas! thought they
Who tore the fair breasts of thy friends,
Their fury but made way For Thee, and served them in their glorious

What did their weapons, but with wider pores Enlarge thy flaming-breasted lovers, More freely to transpire
That impatient fire
The heart that hides Thee hardly covers?
What did their weapons but set wide the doors
For Thee? fair purple doors of love's devising;

The ruby windows which enriched the east Of thy so oft-repeated rising. Each wound of theirs was thy new morning, And re-enthroned Thee in thy rosy nest, With blush of thine own blood thy day adorning: It was the wit of love o'erflowed the bounds Of wrath, and made the way through all these wounds. Welcome, dear, All-adorned Name! For there is no knee That knows not Thee; Or if there be such sons of shame Alas! what will they do,

When stubborn rocks shall bow, And hills hang down their heav'n-saluting heads To seek for humble beds Of dust, where, in the bashful shades of night, Next to their own low nothing they may lie; And couch before the dazzling light of thy dread Majesty. They that by love's mild dictate now

Will not adore Thee, Shall then, with just confusion, bow And break before Thee. -Richard Crashaw (1644.)

Jesus Wept!

Jesus wept over the woes of a single city: and do you think that he never wept over the woes of a world? He wept in public, where he would certainly restrain his feelings as much as possible; and do you think he never wept in secret? Could we lift the sacred vell of his solitary hours; of his seasons of retirement, while an obscure workman of Nazareth; of his forty days' fasting and prayer in the wilderness; of his vigils on the mountain tops and in the deserts—what prayers, what intercessions, what tears, what tender and heavenly sympathies with the sorrows and woes of humanity, would come to light! His affections were not limited to Judea; he did not love those merely who loved him. He wept at the grave of Lazarus, and over the distress of Martha and Mary; and why not over the great congregation of the dead of more than a hundred and thirty generations past, and over all the broken hearts of widows and starving orphans from the beginning of the world? Why not over the distress of all the sick, the delirium of the deranged, the agonies of the dying? Do you now see why he went about with restless assiduity to console, to comfort, to bind up broken hearts, raising the dead, curing and cleansing and restoring men to the enjoyment of health, sight, hearing, and reason? How could he do otherwise, with a heart like his? He would have done so, though no man had believed in him on that account, or returned to him a grateful word or look.

SUMMARY OF CHURCH NEWS. EPISCOPAL.

-The thirty-fifth annual meeting of the Protestant Episcopal Board of Missions was held lately. According to the annual report, 192 home missionaries have been employed during the year: The receipts have been $134,985, of which only $711 remain on hand to meet $28,928 of liabilities.

-The congregation of St. Bartholomew's, New York, have concluded to move up town, and have purchased the Christ church edifice, corner of Fifth avenue and Thirty-fifth street. -The Rev. Cortland Whitehead has accepted the charge of the church of the Nativity, at Bethlehem, Pa.

-The Bishop of Calcutta recently visited Burmah, and the Indian papers describe the diffi-culties which prevented a proposed interview between the Bishop and the King of Burmah. His majesty insisted on the Bishop squatting cross-legged before him, a small carpet being the only concession he would make. The Bishop asked to be allowed to stand, but the King was firm; he could not be allowed to stand before him or to occupy a seat not lower than his. His Majesty invariably inclined on a very low couch on these occasions. The Bishop was likewise firm; he declined to suffer the indignity of sitting cross-legged on a bit of carpet; and as the chief Buddhist priest is allowed a seat on a level with the King's, he urged that similar courtesy might be granted to one of corresponding rank. The result was that the Bishop left Mandalay without having met the King, although both were very desirous that an interview should take -The Diocese of Illinois will be divided into two. The proposed new diocese will contain 26,266 square miles and a population of 1,137,708, while the old diocese will contain 25,224 square miles and a population of 1,406,205. The new diocese will be bounded as indicated in the Bishops Convention address, by a line running east and west on the south line of Han-cock, McDonough, Fulton, Mason, Tazewell, McLean, Ford, and Iroquois counties, and the sum of $40,000 will be raised as a fund for the support of the Episcopate.

—Rev. Mr. de Mora, a Spanish priest, who some years age joined the Protestant Episcopal Church in New York, is now staying in Lisbon. the capital of Portugal, where he has gathered a Spanish congregation. He writes from there to a friend in this country:—"I shall soon present to the Portuguese Government the regulations for the Spanish Church in a permanent state; for I have under my care the Portuguese and Spanish congregation; and among the privileges obtained for me by our American Minister (who is indeed a member of our beloved Church), one is, that the Portuguese may attend services at my house without being in any wise molested.

"The worship of the new church will be conducted with our Church's Book of Common Prayer. I have the Common Prayer Book translated into Portuguese from the English. And I must try to obtain the same in Spanish. Do me the favor to beg the Domestic Committee (Missionary) for some hundreds of copies. If the request be granted, I shall rejoice. If not, I must look to London for them. If my Church in the United States take no interest in this work, I shall feel constrained to seek favor elsewhere."

PRESBYTERIAN. -The Rev. William C. Somerville has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Houston church, Texas. He is now in Canada, and will spend the winter there.

The Domestic Missionary Committee of the Presbytery of New Orleans reported the employment of the Rev. James McConnell, at a salary of $1000, as its evangelist in the region west of the river known as the "Teche Country," and his entrance upon his labors.

—We notice a movement in Kentucky which promises, if successful, to end litigation in the courts of the State, so far as concerns Centre College. Both of the Synods now existing in that State—the Synod adhering to the General Assembly, and the Synod belonging to the Southern Presbyterian Church—have appointed Southern Presbyterian Church—have appointed committees who are to meet and confer together, and, if possible, agree on some plan by which the questions in dispute regarding the college college may be adjusted to the satisfaction of all parties. Professor O. Beatty has recently accepted the presidency of that isstitution. Mr. Beatty is known to be one of the ablest, most learned, and most efficient teachers in the State. A few years ago he declined the profisered Presidency of Kentucky Agricultural College of Lexington. Centre College is already prospering, and it will grow more prosperous under his judicious management. One hundred and forty-five students are in attendance this year, and its friends are greatly encouraged.

—The Associate Reformed Synod of the South met at Salem, Tenn., September 15. Ten pres-byteries were represented, though, according to the Associate Reformed Presbyterian, the attendance was small. The report of the Committee on Psalmody was adopted. It is confined to the revision of Rouse, and that to a very limited extent.

BAPTIST. The pastors and delegates of the Eastern German Conference held their Twentleth Annual Conference with the church in Authory township, Lycoming county, Pa., in the first and second weeks of October. The conference is second weeks of October. The conference is composed of thirty churches, which reported an increase of two hundred and seventy by baptism during the year. An interesting report of the mission work of the conference was read by Mr. Schulte, General Missionary of the Home Missionary Society, whose duty it is to travel as a missionary among the churches who are without pastors, to open new territory, and to represent to American churches, wherever he may have opportunity, the need of German home missions. The conference is a missionary society, auxiliary to the American Baptist Home Mission Society; the funds raised for mission purposes go into the treasury of said society, and the German missionaries are appointed by the same on the recommendation of the conference or its missionary committee. the conference or its missionary committee. Resolutions were passed in regard to the German department of the Rochester Theological Seminary, resommending the seventeen German students who are at present engaged in studies preparatory to the ministry to the liberality of the churches, and earnestly requesting the Board of the New York Ministerial Union to appoint, as soon as possible, an assistant teacher instruct the students in the secular branches of learning. A committee was appointed to lay this request before the board. The German de-partment at Rochester has, indeed, become a great blessing to the mission work among the Germans. More than two-thirds of the pastors of the conference are graduates of it. -Ex-Mayor Thomas B. Peddie, of Newark,

New Jersey, a member of the First Baptist Church in that city, has donated the handsome sum of twenty-five thousand dollars to the New Jersey Classical and Scientific Institute at Hightstown, on condition that its liabilities are all provided for. This places the financial affairs of that thriving young institution upon a firm foundation. -The Baptists of Newark, N. J., have just held a great meeting in the First Church, with over two thousand persons present, and resolved, among other things, to break ground for two new chapels, and purchase lots for a third; and most of the $12,000 immediately needed for that purpose has been secured. This will give to the denomination in that city twelve preaching places. —The Trinity Baptist Church, New York (Rev. J. Stamford Holme, D. D., pastor), have lately bought a lot of ground for a new church edifice. The lot is 70 by 125 feet, and is located on the corner of Sixty-third street and Lexington avenue, and is one of the best locations in the city for a church.

LUTHERAN. -There are twenty Lutheran churces in the city of New York, the ministers of which belong to six different synods. The Ministerium has 5 churches; the Synod of New York, 3; the Missouri Synod, 3; Steimle's Synod, 3; the Norwegian Synod, 1; Pennsylvania Synod, 1; and two are independent. Two of these churches are English, one Swedish, one Norwegian, one German and English, and fifteen are German. Four of these churches were established the last year.

-The Wartburg Orphan Farm School, the care of the Lutheran churches in New York city, has just occupied a new and commodious building near Mount Vernon, N. Y. The funds for the school were furnished by Mr. Peter Moller and his brother, as a gift to the memory of their mother.

—The Synod of Northern Indiana, at its late meeting in N. Manchester, deposed C. C. Sink from the ministry, for immoral conduct; and constituted King William, of Prussia, a life-director of its Missionary Society, for reasons not stated.

METHODIST. -One of the best endowed seminaries under the patronage of the Methodist denomination is Chamberlain Institute, Randolph, Cattaraugus county, New York. In 1866 Judge Chamber-lain, whose name it bears, erected on the ample grounds on which the old academy stood an additional beautiful building at an expense of $50,000, and presented it to the denomination. At his death, two years later, he bequeathed the Institution a full endowment, $50,000 of which has already become available, leaving a much larger amount to come at the settlement of the

-The Rev. E. G. Beckwith, who has been compelled to close his labors with the Second Church in San Francisco that he may secure a year's vacation and rest, has arrived in Boston.

The pew-holders in the Old South Church in Boston recently voted to construct a new chapel on a lot of land owned by the society at the corner of Boylston and Dartmouth streets, at a cost not exceeding $50,000.

ROMAN CATHOLIC. The Gazette of Cologne, of October 10, publishes a third list of Roman Catholics who protest against Papal Infallibility. The list comprises about one hundred and fifty names from nineteen places. The "Central Committee for the Movement Against Papal Infallibility, Cologne, urges its friends to hasten the collec-tion of signatures in all parts of Germany. The Bishops of the Opposition continue to be silent, —The Roman Catholics in France are alarmed by the progress of Protestantism in that country, and a society sprang up in Paris shortly before the war, aiming to publish Roman Catholie books and journals at exceptionally low prices, employing girls to do the work, and promising them, at twenty-one, a small dowry, and, if they like, a small shop in some country town for the sale of these books and journals. YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

The Third Annual Convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations of the State of Pennsylvania will convene at Scranton, Luzerne county, on Tuesday, Nov. 8, 1870, closing its session on Thursday evening. Delegates are expected from all the Associations in the State, among whom will be many of our most prominent ministers and earnest Christian workers.

A most cordial invitation is extended to ministers and Christian laymen, in town and country districts where there are no associations, to come to the convention. A most hearty Christian welcome is assured to all who come, and arrangements will be made for their entertain-ment as well as for reduced fare on railroads. All who design attending are requested to address Thomas K. Cree, Chairman State Executive Committee, Pittsburg, that they may avail themselves of these privileges.

NEW STYLES AND ALL PRICES. To MOTHERS .- Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children is an old and well-tried remedy. It has stood the test of many years, and never known to fail. It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, and gives rest and health to the child and comfort to the mother.

MR. WILLIAM W. CASSIDY, the jeweller at No. 8 South Second street, has one of the largest and most attractive stocks of all kinds of Jewelry and Silverware in the city. He has also on hand a fine assortment of fine American Western Watches. Those who purchase at this store at the present time are certain to get the worth of their money.

THE demand on Saturday for our $15 and other beautiful and cheap suits surpassed anything in the history of our business. From morning until night there was one continual stream of customers making purchases at the Great Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Reckhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chesnu

A NEW AND HEALTHFUL ARTICLE OF FOOD .- The SEA MOSS FARINE, manufactured from Irish Moss, by the Rand Sea Moss Farine Company, has been placed on our table at different times, and proves to be one of the best, most nutritious, and easilydigested of all the farinas now in use. It is palatable to the taste, is lighter and less compact than any other farina, and hence better adapted to weak stomachs, to dyspeptics, to invalids, and all persons of frail constitutions. In cases where tapioca, sago, barley, corn starch, maizena, and similar articles are beneficial, the Sea Moss Farine is not only a substitute, but has advantages which neither of them possess, because the main ingredient of the moss has been considered by medical men for many years as having invaluable remedial properties. It is particularly recommended for pectoral affections, screfulous complaints, diarrhea, etc.-Editor Hall's Journal of Health.

WITHOUT SPOT OR SEDIMENT .- Phalon's Vitalia, or alvation for the Hair, has no bad smell, and does not stain the skin. It has no ingredient that subsides in the form of flithy sediment. Consequently, is not shrouded in darkened bottles. The natura color of the hair, however completely it may have faded out, is invariably reproduced by the Vitalia. Sold by all druggists.

VALER'S RESTAURANT, No. 923 ARCH STREET, elegantly fitted up, is now in full blast, serving all the delicacies of the season from 6 A. M. to midnight.
